DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's admission of prior art in view of U.S. Patent No. 2,454,463 to Kromer et al.

On page 4, lines 2-13 of the specification applicant admits that conventional fitted sheets comprise a flat panel having at least one end panel and side panels depending therefrom, said side panel and said end panel being continuous and intersecting at at least one corner, a hem disposed at said corner, said hem having two sides wherein one side is attached to said side panel and one side is attached to said end panel, said hem having elastic material therein whereby said corner forms a pocket for accommodating one corner of the mattress. The conventional fitted sheet fails to include a flat triangular-shaped panel having three sides, wherein two of said sides are attached in their entirety to said hem for enlarging said pocket.

Kromer et al. discloses a fitted sheet comprising a flat triangular-shaped panel (34) having three sides, see Fig. 4. Kromer et al. further discloses at col. 2, lines 37-40 that the triangular-shaped panel may be an integral part of the blank forming the sheet or a separate piece. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the admitted conventional fitted sheet with triangular-shaped panels sewn to the corners so as to provide a means of effectively locking the sheet in position on a mattress, as taught by Kromer at col. 2, lines 27-32. Accordingly, two of the three sides of the flat triangular-shaped panel are attached in their entirety to the hem for enlarging the pocket.

As concerns claim 4, the flat triangular-shaped panel is fabricated from cloth.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Submission of your response by facsimile transmission is encouraged. Technology Center 3600's facsimile number for all official papers is (703) 872-9306. Recognizing the fact that reducing cycle time in the processing and examination of patent applications will effectively increase a patent's term, it is to your benefit to submit responses by facsimile transmission whenever permissible. Such submission will place the response directly in our examining group's hands and will eliminate Post Office processing and delivery time as well as the PTO's mail room processing and delivery time. For a complete list of correspondence not permitted by facsimile transmission, see MPEP § 502.01. In general, most responses and/or amendments not requiring a fee, as well as those requiring a fee but charging such fee to a deposit account, can be submitted by facsimile transmission. Responses requiring a fee which applicant is paying by check should not be submitted by facsimile transmission separately from the check.

Responses submitted by facsimile transmission should include a Certificate of Transmission (MPEP § 512). The following is an example of the format the certification might take:

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being facsimile transmitted to the Patent and Trademark Office (Fax No. _____) on (Date) _____

(Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate)

(Signature)

If your response is submitted by facsimile transmission, you are hereby reminded that the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity (37 CFR 1.4 and MPEP § 502.02). Please do not separately mail the original or another copy unless required by the Patent and Trademark Office. Submission of the original response or a follow-up copy of the response after your response has been transmitted by facsimile will only cause further unnecessary delays in the processing of your application; duplicate responses where fees are charged to a deposit account may result in those fees being charged twice.

Communications via Internet e-mail regarding this application, other than those under 35 U.S.C. 132 or which otherwise require a signature, may be used by the applicant and should be directed to heather.shackelford@uspto.gov.

Art Unit: 3673

All Internet e-mail communications will be made of record in the application file. PTO employees do not engage in Internet communications where there exists a possibility that sensitive information could be identified or exchanged unless the record includes a properly signed expressed waiver of the confidentiality requirements of 35 U.S.C. 122. This is more clearly set forth in the Interim Internet Usage Policy published in the Official Gazette of the Patent and Trademark on February 25, 1997 at 1195 OG 89.

Information regarding the status of an application may be obtained from the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) system.
